

Name: _____ Date: _____

Who is Mary Musgrove?

Read the paragraph about Mary Musgrove. Answer questions 1-6 and decide if the underlined word is used correctly. If it's not, decide how to make the sentence correct.

Who is Mary Musgrove? Why is she important in (1.) american history? Mary is a woman who played an important role in starting the Georgia Colony. (2.) Mary's mother was Creek and her father an English trader. Mary (3.) live with the Creek tribe until her mother died. After her mother's death, she went to live with (4.) her father in South Carolina. She knew the language and the customs of both the (5.) creek and the English settlers. Mary grew up and married a trader named John Musgrove. They (6.) build a trading post. They traded with the Creek and the settlers. Mary later helped Oglethorpe and Tomochichi talk to each other. This helped in starting the Georgia Colony. Indeed, Mary Musgrove is an important person in American history.

1. a. american
 b. American
 c. Americans
 d. Americans'

2. a. Marys
 b. Maries
 c. Mary's
 d. Marys'

3. a. live
 b. lives
 c. live's
 d. lived

4. a. her
 b. hers
 c. she
 d. she's

5. a. creek
 b. Creek
 c. CREEK
 d. Creeks

6. a. build
 b. Build
 c. built
 d. builds