2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	The following perception data was used; health, parent, student and SEL surveys.
What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	The perception data revealed a number of things; parent survey revealed that parents feel that there is good communication between the school and them. Additionally, it revealed that parents feel that they have an input on decisions that are made at the school level. Our SEL survey revealed that students feel safe at school but a great number of students to have low self esteem.
What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	Belair utilized information from parent, student, and staff surveys.
What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question "What did you do for whom?")	Overall the data showcased that parents were pleased with the various programs offered at Belair. Students enjoy participating in the various clubs, sports, and various activities offered at Belair.

What achievement data did you use?	Data from District benchmarks, diagnostic assessments, and GMAS
What does your achievement data tell you?	The monitoring of Tier 1 instruction is a priority at Belair.
What demographic data did you use?	Data was analyzed based on racial and ethnical backgrounds
What does the demographic data tell you?	The percentage of African American students at Belair is increasing while other minorities are decreasing. Sped students are underperforming at a larger percentage rate than previous years.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	In reviewing information included from our school's data collection analysis, the lack of an academically challenging learning environment, the lack of clearly communicated learning targets and success criteria, and teacher's demonstrating a repertoire of effective, research-based instructional strategies were trends and patterns that reveal teacher supports that are needed.
Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The school's leadership is operational in building and sustaining relationships that foster the success of students and staff. Administrators initiate change, however change is not sustained and barriers are not removed. Processes are used to frequently analyze data to improve student achievement. Additionally, numerous structures exist for staff to engage and share decision making and problem solving.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The professional learning needs identified are using limited sources of data and the need for administrators and teacher leaders to define expectations for the implementation for professional learning are trends noticed to provide support for teacher and leader needs. An additional need is to increase the number of staff members engaged in professional learning to make use of more than on learning need.
Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Our school is operational in family and community engagement in most areas. The lone area that needs improvement is the development of the capacity of families to use support strategies at home to enhance academic achievement. This can be improved by providing additional supports during parent nights throughout the academic year.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	A supportive learning environment is our school's primary area of challenge. A supportive and well-managed environment conducive to learning is evident in some classrooms. To increase teacher support in this area, we have aligned our school improvement goals with the need to improve implementation and monitoring of Tier I instruction. The next area of need is to increase the number of teachers that create an academically challenging learning environment. This will be addressed by creating and monitoring data from common assessments that include DOK levels that mirror the rigor of GMAS assessments. The third area needing improvements to create supportive learning environment is increasing the number of students that use tools to actively monitor their own progress.

Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	African American student population is currently increasing while other minorities are decreasing. Majority of our students come from working class families and 8% from military. Belair Funds are used to secure another instructional specialist and supplies to support and enhance instruction.

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The primary need to increase student achievement addresses the number of students on grade level in English-Language Arts and mathematics. Currently approximately 50% of our students are below grade level in English-Language Arts while approximately eighty percent of our student are below grade level in mathematics.

Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.
--

Strengths	The retention rate of SPED, ESOL and general education teachers is a strength of our school. Specific professional learning needs of teachers have been addressed is an additional strength.

Required Questions

1. In developing this plan, briefly describe how the school sought advice from individuals (teachers, staff, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, specialized instructional support personnel, parents, community partners, and other stakeholders).	The leadership team provided information collected from teachers during grade level meetings. Parent facilitators held parent vision meetings to collect information.
2. Describe how the school will ensure that low-income and minority children enrolled in the Title I school are not served at disproportionate rates by ineffective, out-of-field, or inexperienced teachers.	Grade-level teams are balanced based on experience and certifications of teachers. Professional learning is provided to out-of-field and inexperienced teachers as a means to enhance their instructional knowledge. Instructional Specialists are utilized to help support teachers and monitor effective instruction.
3. Provide a general description of the Title I instructional program being implemented at this Title I school. Specifically define the subject areas to be addressed and the instructional strategies/methodologies to be employed to address the identified needs of the most academically at-risk students in the school. Please include services to be provided for students living in local institutions for neglected or delinquent children (if applicable).	Corrective reading and Reading Mastery programs will be utilized to enhance literacy skills with selected SPED students . 95% and Up kits will be utilized to enhance the literacy skills of EIP and RTI students. Augmented, REP, and Self-contained EIP teachers will be utilized to address the needs of at-risk students in ELA and mathematics. HMH and Ready math resources will be utilized to enhance numeracy skills with at-risk students.
4. If applicable, provide a description of how teachers, in consultation with parents, administrators, and pupil services personnel, will identify eligible children most in need of services in Title I targeted assistance schools/programs. Please include a description of how the school will develop and implement multiple (a minimum of 2) objective, academic-based performance criteria to rank students for service. Also include a description of the measurable scale (point system) that uses the objective criteria to rank all students.	Belair K-8 will utilize the district mandated diagnostic assessments and benchmarks in conjunction with the GMAS results and EIP checklists to identify the needs of eligible students.
