

Reading/math Intervention 8

Ms. Tanksley

CLASS MATERIALS

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Cell phones should not be used during class time..

GRADING PERCENTAGES

RULES + EXPECTATIONS

BE PREPARED

Be on time, in your seat, and ready to work when class begins. Have the necessary supplies for our class. Always have a book to read for downtime. Try your best in all assignments and complete your weekly homework.

BE RESPECTFUL

You are expected to conduct yourself in a mature way. Respect the rights of others. Be kind and considerate. Respect and follow all school rules and Dress Code.

BE RESPONSIBLE

Have integrity with your work, do not cheat, or plagiarize (doing so may result in an automatic zero). If you are absent for any reason it is your responsibility to find out what assignments/notes were missed and make arrangements for makeup work.

CONSEQUENCES

1. Verbal Warning
2. Confer with the Student (possible loss of privilege)
3. Parent Notification
4. Office Referral

Note: A serious violation in the code of conduct may result in an immediate referral to the Dean's Office

- It is your responsibility to check your grades weekly.
- A zero means that the assignment(s) was NOT turned in and completion of the assignment is due as soon as possible (ASAP) for a grade.
- No name papers will have points deducted from the total score and hung up on the bulletin board
- LATE ASSIGNMENTS: should be turned in before the semester ends