Kennesaw Invitational
Orchestra Festival Trip
November 7-9, 2019

NATIVE
AMERICAN ATLANTA
FESTIVAL SYMPHONY

Tentative Itinerary

Thursday we leave after school on a charter bus and head to the hotel, stopping half way (exit 114) to Atlanta for a fast-food dinner. Once checked in and changed for the concert, we head to symphony hall to watch the Atlanta Symphony in concert with guest violinist James Ehnes. Friday we head to the Native American Festival at Stone Mountain 9:00am-3:00pm, lunch is included. Then we head back to the hotel to freshen up, grab instruments, clothes, and music, and head to dinner. We arrive at Kennesaw by 7:30pm, warm-up is at 8:00pm, and we perform for the adjudicators at 8:45pm. Saturday morning we get up early to return to Augusta so that the chorus students can get to Savannah for All-State auditions.

Cost

We are doing everything we can to keep the cost down for each student by using some donated funds from past years, as well as what we earn on October 5, to help subsidize the trip. The fee for each student will be $110. All meals are included except for the fast food dinner Thursday night and dinner on Friday night. Please contact me concerning any payment issues.
