2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	Georgia Health Surveys completed by 3rd-5th graders, Panorama Data, SAI surveys completed by teachers.
What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	SAI Surveys indicate that 77% of teachers believe in the school's mission and vision. 80% of teachers believe they are being supported by the instructional and administrator team. Georgia Health Surveys indicate that 83% of students feel safe while 84% believe student misbehavior interrupts their learning. Panorama survey data by 3rd-5th grade students indicate that 86% of student enjoy coming to school and feel like their teacher likes and supports them.
What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	Student participation in school activities, master scheduling for varied course offerings, and school council.
What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question "What did you do for whom?")	It is difficult to get parents to participate in activities during the school day, volunteering, and parent feedback on school surveys.

What achievement data did you use?	CMAs, GMAS, iReady, and grades.

What does your achievement data tell you?	iReady data suggests that students are 1-2 grade levels below in all content areas. In grades 1st-5th, more than 79% of students are not on grade level according to iReady Reading. According to iReady Math, grades 1st through 5th grades indicate that more than 69% of students are not on grade level. CMA results in both reading and math indicate that 90% of students are scoring at beginning learning based on standards for each checkpoint. Georgia Milestone subgroup data shows that regardless of race, 70% or more students scored beginning learner in Reading.

What demographic data did you use?	SWD, ESOL, USHA, Data Dashboard, and Panorama.
------------------------------------	--

What does the demographic data tell you?	All subgroups are experiencing difficulties in all content areas. Georgia Milestone data shows that regardless of race, 50% or more students scored beginning learner in Reading and Math.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The team observed that majority of our students are scoring beginning level or progressing level on district and state assessments. Sub-groups such as ESOL and SPED show the same trends as the overall data of the school. Standards are understood by our teachers, however, we are lacking in rigor of the standards and differentiating the standards to meet student's individual needs. According to TKES, 69% of our teachers were rated level 2 in the area of differentiated instruction. 56% of teachers rated level 2 for assessment uses indicating that our teachers do not have a strong understanding of how to analyze assessment data and how to use it to impact student learning.
Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Our leadership was diverse in years in the profession and backgrounds. Our leadership team was comprised of 12 team members. Leadership members need to be empowered to lead in smaller groups within the building. E-Walk and TKES observations indicate that 40% of teachers struggle with engagement in the classroom.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Teachers need more help with instructional strategies, specifically in the areas of differentiated instruction, positive learning environment, and academically challenging environment.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Parents are eager to participate in after school programs and events, but do not attend school events during the day. Parents also do not provide feedback on school surveys.
Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Students have a variety of wraparound needs. We currently have a partnership with Golden Harvest Food Bank for the Backpack Snack program. We also have a clothing closet for student use. Families are also able to get services for mental health needs and social services through our counselor and school social worker.
Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Students and families are in need of resources to assist with home, financial, and wellbeing needs.
Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Majority of our student population are one to two grade levels below. Our students need extensive help with literacy and numeracy deficits.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	18% of our sped students passed the GMAS, the end of the year state assessment. Our ESOL students did not pass the GMAS, the end of the year state assessment.

Challenges	Our SWD, ESOL, and Economically disadvantaged students show significant deficits in all content areas.
