Meet the TEACHER about me

With many years of teaching experience, I bring dedication, wisdom, and a deep love of learning into every classroom I have entered. A lifelong learner myself, I find joy in the written word, the elegance of mathematics, and the thrill of a good puzzle. Outside of teaching, my passions paint a rich and vivid picture: I am a lover of classic films and timeless music, a collector who treasures the past. The ocean's vastness and the grace of horses speaks to my spirit: free, curious, and grounded in nature's beauty. Whether I am reading, writing, solving, or inspiring, I try to live a life fueled by creativity, intellect, and heart.
