COURSE DESCRIPTION- MUSICAL THEATRE

This class introduces the style and characteristic elements of musical theater. Explores the mechanics of production, staging, voice, and dance. Explores the career opportunities available in musical theatre and offers opportunity for performance. Throughout the semester students will enhance their skills with a focus on production and will have many opportunities for performance. This course will have additional after school requirements.

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

TREAT EVERYONE WITH RESPECT

EFFORT IS EXPECTED! GIVE 100% IN CLASS! NO PHONES DURING CLASS!

ATTITUDE IS EVERYTHING! COME TO CLASS READY TO WORK, LEARN, CREATE AND HAVE FUN!

MAKE GOOD DECISIONS! BE SAFE AND CLEAN UP AFTER YOURSELVES.

PARTICIPATION IS MEASURED BY EFFORT NOT TALENT OR SKILL LEVEL

THERE IS NO "I CAN'T" ... ONLY "I'LL TRY!"

Full participation is absolutely necessary for every student to excel in theatre education. Students are expected to participate by coming to class on time, being prepared (in proper attire, homework completed, paperwork turned in and with the necessary supplies), participating in class discussions, activities, and presentations, and performing all necessary tasks and assignments. Tardiness, a lack of preparedness (including missing homework and supplies, and unauthorized cell phone usage), refusing to participate fully in all class lessons, and missing assignments will result in disciplinary action. This includes a call home, detention and eventually administrative referrals.

THAT'S NOT FUNNY ...

There is zero tolerance for inappropriate humor. If you cannot find humor in appropriate subject matter, then this is not the class for you. All scenes/games must be PG with NO obscene references to inappropriate romantic activities, drugs, alcohol or any other subject you would not discuss in front of your parents or grandparents (or Dr. Kelly). Keep it clean, smart, and witty.
