

Caught Red Hatted Read Across America Week March 2-6

It's time to escape inside a book and get caught reading. Starting Monday March 2nd, The Cat in the Hat will be walking around trying to catch students reading. If you are caught, you will be awarded a raffle ticket. On Friday, several tickets will be pulled and you will get a chance to eat a lunch of green eggs and ham with Ms. Scoggins and Ms. Ford and receive a prize. You can be awarded more than once....so START READING!!!

MONDAY (3/2): WE WILL START OFF THE WEEK WITH CAUGHT RED HATTED- This is your day to wear any kind of red hat. (It has to be a red hat)

TUESDAY (3/3): HOORAY FOR DIFFENDOOFER DAY-Any student who met their reading goal in i-Ready will get to take a piece of tape and tape our Media Specialist –Mrs. Cross to the wall.

WEDNESDAY (3/4): MY MANY COLORED COMFY COZY DAY-This is a day you can get comfy by wearing sweatpants, pajama bottoms, and crazy socks. Wear as many different colors as possible. Bring your flashlight and favorite stuffed animal and cozy up to a book today.

THURSDAY (3/5): OH THE THINKS YOU CAN THINK...READ MY SHIRT DAY-Wear a shirt with appropriate words to share. The student who has the most words on their shirts wins a prize.

FRIDAY (3/6): GREEN EGGS AND HAM DAY-Wear school color-green, yellow, white, and black. Today, the class who read the most minutes for the month of February will participate in the Campsite Mystery.
