

STUDENT BEHAVIOR AGREEMENT

Classroom Rules

1. No phones or air pods are allowed to be out or in use while in the classroom.
2. Avoid eating any food or having any cans of soda.
3. Profanity is not tolerated; if you would not say it in church then do not say it in class.
4. Only speak when called upon by raising your hand and don't speak when your teacher is.
5. Keep your hands to yourself, and you should leave other people's stuff alone.

Classroom Procedures

1. Be respectful, prepared, and ready to work.
2. Enter the classroom quietly and begin working promptly.
3. Place your backpack in the proper place.
4. Pay attention during instruction and avoid being disruptive/interruptive.
5. Remain seated, raise your hand, and stay engaged when working.
6. Desks are not to be used to write or draw on and keep your area clean.
7. The teacher's desk is not to be messed with.

Consequences for breaking Rules or Procedures

1. Teacher Redirection: individual warning with corrective measures.
2. Parent Contact: phone call or email home to parent or guardian regarding behavior.
3. Referral to Counselors: "get your life right" meeting with an assigned counselor.
4. Parent/student conference to implement a behavior plan.
5. Teacher Detention: assigned to serve before or after school if preceding steps are ineffective.
6. Administrative referral: if preceding steps do not work then it will be referred to administration.

Severe Disruption

Removal from classroom and referral submitted to school administration.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

RCSS does not discriminate on the bases of race, color, religion, sex, age, or disability in its educational programs and activities and provides equal access to all designated school groups.