

Hello and welcome!

My name is JaNae Hill, and I am known as Coach Hill.

I am from North Augusta, SC. I attended college at Charleston Southern University. While there, I marched with the Pride of the Lowcountry Marching Band as well as participated in various musical ensembles. I pledge Kappa Kappa Psi, National Honorary Band Fraternity, Inc. and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. After graduating, I attended Augusta State University (now Augusta University) for my Masters of Arts in Teaching in Health & Physical Education. While I worked on my teacher certification, I began teaching Dance at Sue Reynolds Elementary. I taught there for 5 years before stepping away from the school system to work at a community center. While there, I became a certified Personal Trainer and Group Fitness Instructor. I returned to the school system after 2 years, now working at Landford Middle School as the PE teacher. I have enjoyed my time here so far and am looking forward to great things! Go LIONS!!!!

Hobbies: Dancing, Cooking, Eating, Exercising, Watching Sports, Reading, Writing Poetry, Traveling, Being with Family and Friends!
