Strengths	SPED-made a tight efficient schedule to work with students to accommodate IEPs and worked well as a team. Students in lower grades showed much more growth on iReady diagnostics than students in upper grades.
	EDC-students were served by various programs and according to need: EIP, SPED, ESOL, Title 1 funding, Tier 2 and 3 intervention, and other programs.
	Student body showed over all growth in both reading and math on iReady diagnostics.
	EL (ESOL)- At least 53% of the students showed growth on the ACCESS.
	ESOL program is efficient and effective in moving students in a positive direction.

Challenges	SPED-Upper grade students indicate a greater need for additional support in reading. Teacher caseloads are heavy with number of students and needs of each student.
	EDC-Student attendance and behavior are challeges that need to targeted.
	ESOL-Student attendance is a concern.
