2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA's data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by "TFS" (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	● Standards Assessment Inventory (SAI) ; the SAI is a confidential, 50-item survey that measures how well our professional learning aligns with the Standards for Professional Learning. ● Georgia Student Health Survey ● Infinite Campus Disciplinary Incident Counts ● Principal's Advisory Committee ● Social Emotional Learning Survey (Panorama Dashboard) ● Augusta University ● Stoplight Feedback Survey

What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people's knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question "What do people think they know, believe, or can do?")	Positive Perceptions: Teachers: ● Use of technology is evident in the school's professional learning ● School's professional learning plan is aligned to school's goal ● School's primary goal for professional learning in my school is to enhance teaching practices to improve student's performance. ● School's learning communities are structured for teacher's to engage in the continuous cycle. ● Learning community members believe the responsibility to improve student learning is shared by all stakeholders. Students: (Culture) ● 80% of student respondents agree that teachers treat them with respect. ● 51% of students feel successful in school. Negative Perceptions: Low scored indicators Teachers: ● Teachers feel that their input is not taken into consideration when planning for professional learning. ● Teachers are involved in the decision making about how professional learning resources are allocated. ● In my schoolteacher's background, experience levels, and learning needs are considered when professional learning is planned and designed. Students: ● 61% of student respondents agree that students don't treat each other with respect but 51% report that they experienced no teasing from other students within the last 30 days of school; 75% reported no bullying or threats from other students within the last 30 days of school ● Equitable treatment for accountable practices. Competencies: Collaborative Planning Technology Integration Culture/Climate Community Engagement

What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	● School Activities (i.e., club participation, arts, sports) ● Parent Participation/ Parent Engagement (building capacity parent meetings, attendance meetings)

What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question "What did you do for whom?")	● Familiar programs typically involve the same persons, there is no plan in place to build capacity for sustainable practices. ● Lack of understanding for continuity of support. Coaches supporting games only within their assigned sports. ● Although planning to engage community and stakeholders was intentional by way of the parent facilitator, however the focus now has to be on buy-in and stakeholder embracing the need to receive resources.

What achievement data did you use?	● Georgia Milestones Assessment (End of Course Test) Results to review content mastery scores/academic progression ● Dual Enrollment ● SAT/ACT ● Dual Enrollment ● AP (Consecutive Years- 5 Year) Trend Data ● NWEA MAP ● Content Mastery Assessment ● EOC Teacher Pass Rate ● EOPA Pass Rate ● ACCESS Report

What does your achievement data tell you?	● Increase in EOC US History and American Literature ● AP scores for 2024 not released ● Algebra Concepts and Connections EOC scores not released ● Per ACCESS report (1 student tested out of ELL program) ● Majority of students passed EOPA excluding Engineering Pathway

What demographic data did you use?	Subgroup EOC Data Worksheet from the Department of Accountability

What does the demographic data tell you?	● ESOL subgroup now reports on EOC administration and was able to score at the Developing Learner category. ● Special Education across subgroups Beginning Learner/Developing Learner category. ● Black/Non-Hispanic is the largest subgroup and challenged (i.e., scoring level) across EOC courses. ● 31.11 % of Hispanic subgroups scored in the Proficient Learner/Distinguished Learner category.

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional:Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Struggling with using research based instructional practices that positively impact student learning because many teachers have the skillset that lends to a repertoire of effective, research-based instructional practices that could positively impact student learning (e.g., providing feedback, cooperative learning, advance organizers, questioning techniques, similarities and differences, reinforcing effort, goal setting, summarizers, graphic representations, reciprocal teaching) yet lack consistency with implementation. ● Refine the collaborative planning focus to ensure that meaningful and intentional targeted components are addressed. ● Professional learning is needed with using data to design timely interventions. ● Inconsistent with aligning curriculum documents and resources with intended rigor of the required standards. ● Lack of focus with enrichment for students in Advanced Placement courses. Data shows that students taking AP classes underperforming in EOC.

Effective Leadership:Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● School leadership team lacks setting accountability with monitoring, making data-driven decisions, or problem-solving which hinders building leadership capacity. ● Scripted guidance is needed for determining next steps for corrective instruction or remedial practices for implementation of the Data Analysis Protocol to directly impact student achievement for growth.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Professional Capacity:Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Administrators and building leaders (i.e., department chairs) have increased methods of collaborating to improve student achievement (e.g., refine practice, provide feedback). ● Lack of monitoring systems to ensure effective and intentional implementation of curriculum resources, assessment usages and practices, researched-based instructional practices, and effectiveness of professional learning.

Family and Community Engagement:Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Progression and intentional planning needs to be made to intentionally create an environment that welcomes, encourages, and connects family and community members to the school. ● Increased structures that promote clear and open communication between the school and stakeholders. ● Expansion needed to broaden the relationships and decision-making processes by the school to build capacity for family and community engagement. ● The school seldom, if ever, develops the capacity of families to use support strategies at home that will enhance academic achievement. ● The school does little to connect families with agencies and resources in the community to meet the needs of students.

Supportive Learning Environment:Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● School staff usage of the Week at a Glance lends itself to bridge the home and school communication regarding learning standards and potential assessments. ● School staff must increase parental resources to explain academic expectations and/or graduation status (e.g., four-year graduation plans, syllabi, academic advisement protocols) throughout the year. ● Implementation of the MTSS framework to provide instructional support.

Demographic and Financial:Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● No specific or challenges noted with demographic and financial trends. Relevant data is used from teachers and reviewed by the administrative team to determine desired instructional supports and the impact data is captured to determine the impact on student needs. Financial decisions are made from necessity.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Student Achievement:Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	● Focusing on learning gaps will require a comprehensive approach that must combine various research-based strategies to include differentiated Instruction, adherence to Individual learning plans via the IEP or IAP, rigorous and relevant assessments for learning, Response to Intervention Tier 2 supports, awareness of small-group versus explicit instruction, collaborative learning, corrective instruction, and increased parental and community involvement. Given implementation with fidelity of the following, emerging trends and needed supports could be swiftly outlined and provided.

IDEA – Special Education, Economically Disadvantaged Children, and English Learners.

Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.3. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths	● Individualized Education Plans for Students with Disabilities/ Individualized Academic Plan ● Implementation of a weekly progress monitoring day, which allows special education teachers to collect work samples for students' goals/objectives to determine if students are progressing, if Individualized Education Plans need modifying, and if students are on a commensurate level as peers. ● Professional Learning for teachers to support SWD provided by the district ● Support to special education from the program specialist ● Dedicated ELL teacher ● Title I resources for EDD students ● Special Education teacher schedules are aligned with content areas for collaborative planning

Challenges	● Identifying Instructional Resources for English Learners in content areas that are vocabulary driven and require strong literacy skills. ● Connecting parents to resources to support students who fall into the EDD category. ● Matching instructional accommodations to student needs and substantiated the need with data.

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.1 Stakeholders, Coordination of Activities, Serving Children, and PQ

Required Questions

1. In developing this plan, briefly describe how the school sought advice from individuals (teachers, staff, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, specialized instructional support personnel, parents, community partners, and other stakeholders).	The school sought advice from individuals (teachers, staff, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, specialized instructional support personnel, parents, community partners, and other stakeholders via the following methods: ● Westside Parent & Family Engagement Annual Survey ● Title I Input/Revision Parent Meeting ● Checklist for Parent and Family Engagement Input ● EOY Meeting Evaluation ● Parental Input /Feedback ● School Council Meetings

2. Describe how the school will ensure that low-income and minority children enrolled in the Title I school are not served at disproportionate rates by ineffective, out-of-field, or inexperienced teachers.	The Human Resources and Federal Programs Departments of the Richmond County School System collaborate to ensure that children enrolled in Title 1 schools are not served at disproportionately high rates by ineffective, out-of-field, or inexperienced instructors. We will look at the School Improvement Dashboard equity data, which includes data factors about teacher effectiveness, experience, and background provided at the district and school level. We will concentrate on identifying disparities and assess district and school systems and programs that may have contributed to disproportionalities, and then adopt strategies/activities to alleviate those inequities. Our district improvement plan, which will include an equity component and improvement goals, will address the observed gaps. In addition, school leaders monitor the scheduling process to help them make the best scheduling decisions for student achievement. To recruit elite talent, we conduct various career fairs, offer a virtual fair, attend college and university fairs, and use technology avenues. We will continue to use PQ ESSA, the automated software, to offer certification information, out-of-field status, and teacher suggestions for specific courses. The school will implement the department of communication resources to aid with branding and to provide professional development to school interview panels.

3. Provide a general description of the Title I instructional program being implemented at this Title I school. Specifically define the subject areas to be addressed and the instructional strategies/methodologies to be employed to address the identified needs of the most academically at-risk students in the school. Please include services to be	Title I instructional program designed to support Targeted Professional Learning (PL) sessions will be provided by the onsite Academic Support Instructional Specialist. The PL sessions will be required to improve and enhance teachers and paraprofessionals instructional planning. The sessions will incorporate the following monthly peer observations, data analysis protocol, collaborative planning templates and schedules, and coaching conferences to address deficits and concerns of novice and veteran teachers. The Title I program will work to support families by connecting families with agencies and resources

4. If applicable, provide a description of how teachers, in consultation with parents, administrators, and pupil services personnel, will identify eligible children most in need of services in Title I targeted assistance schools/programs. Please include a description of how the school will develop and implement multiple (a minimum of 2) objective, academic-based performance criteria to rank students for service. Also include a description of the measurable scale (point system) that uses the objective criteria to rank all students.	The RCSS will not have any Title I targeted assistance schools during the 2024-2025 school year.

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.2 PQ, Federally Identified Schools, CTAE, Discipline

Required Questions

5. If applicable, describe how the school will support, coordinate, and integrate services with early childhood programs at the school level, including strategies for assisting preschool children in the transition from early childhood education programs to local elementary school programs.	Currently WHS are offering the Early Childhood Education pathway in our schools but we are now moving towards phasing the ECE pathway out and replacing it with the Teaching As A Profession pathway. As we are working in the district with our Strategic plan and our post-secondary partners, we are finding that our students are not quite prepared for the educational field once entering college.

6. If applicable, describe how the school will implement strategies to facilitate effective transitions for students from middle grades to high school and from high school to postsecondary education including:Coordination with institutions of higher education, employers, and local partners; andIncreased student access to early college, high school, or dual or concurrent enrollment opportunities or career counseling to identify student interest and skills.	Counselors will create an Academic Planner per student that will be aligned to Carnegie unit requirements and will provide real time progress for student progression toward Graduation.

7. Describe how the school will support efforts to reduce the overuse of discipline practices that remove students from the classroom, specifically addressing the effects on all subgroups of students.	Teachers will implement an Individual Discipline Plan to address students in the different tier levels. The plan will continue to allow teachers to address minor infractions and consequences by offering warnings, interventions, detention, parent conferences, guidance referrals, and the final step office referral. However, targeted support will be provided for teachers' who inconsistently practice maintaining a management system based on the school wide behavior framework for consistent application of preventative measures/interventions to reinforce positive behavior and avoid adversely impacting the classroom environment and climate of the school.
