

Confidentiality

Confidentiality is one of the cornerstones of a counseling relationship. Accordingly, it is important for all students and parents/guardians to understand that confidentiality is maintained except when...

1. A student is involved in a medical emergency
2. A court order is received
3. A student reveals intent to harm him or herself or someone else
4. A student reveals that s/he or another minor is being abused