Rules

We have rules. We take turns. We share. We respect others.

Rules

Why do we have rules?

Some rules help keep us safe.

Some rules help us learn.

Rules are important at school and at home.

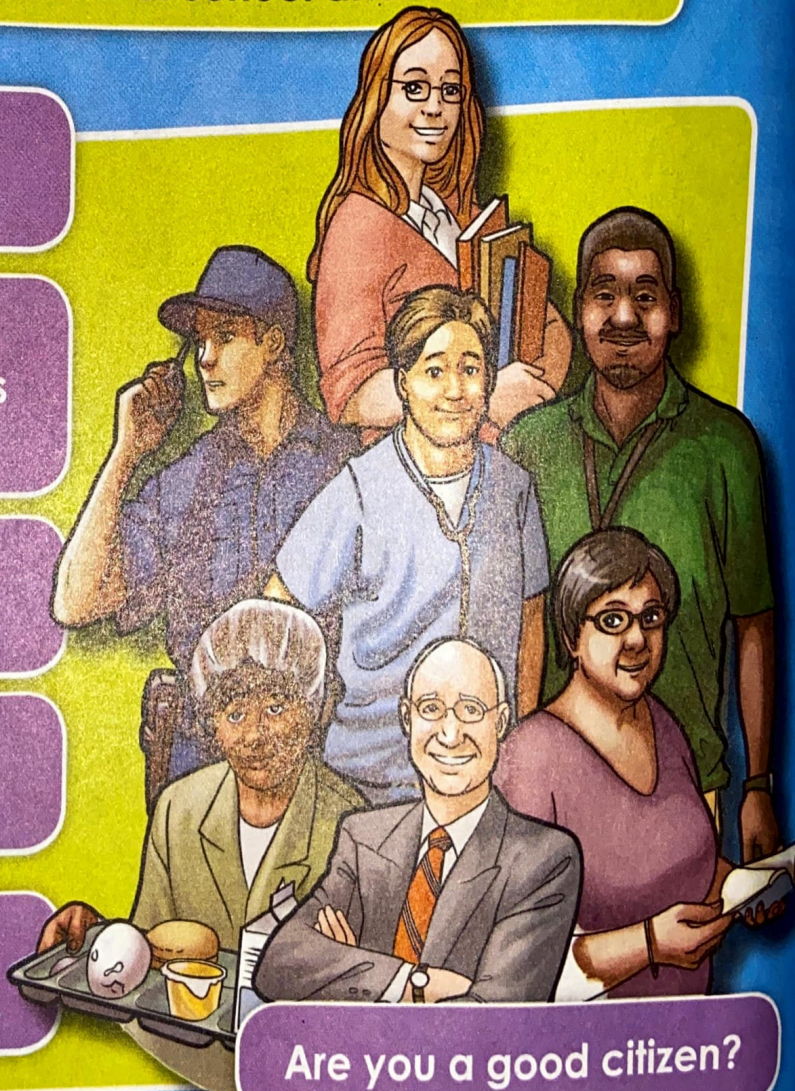

Good citizens tell the truth.

Good citizens feel happy about things they do.

Good citizens respect others.

Good citizens love their country.

Good citizens talk about their feelings.

Are you a good citizen?

Rules at Home

At home, your parents or other adults make the rules. Follow the rules at home to be safe.

Revere follows rules at home.

Rules at School

At school, the principal makes rules. The teachers make rules. Follow the rules to help you learn.

Revere follows rules at school.

What happens if you break the rules at your school? What happens if you break the rules at home?

Consequences are things that happen if you break the rules. Having consequences makes things fair for everyone.

Money

Money is important.
People use money
every day. People use money to buy things.

Money

When you buy something, you trade money for it. For the right amount of money, you can buy a pizza.

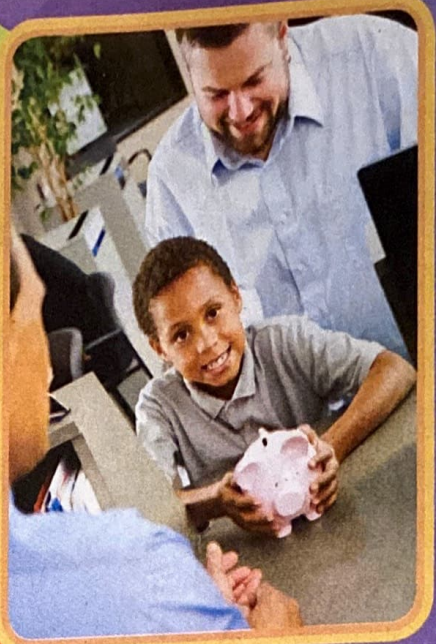

When you buy things like books, toys or food, you are buying goods.

We can pay someone to do something for us. That is called a service. A haircut is a service.

It is a good idea to be careful when you spend money. Most people do not have enough money to buy everything they want.

You can save your money in a bank. The bank will keep your money safe until you need it.

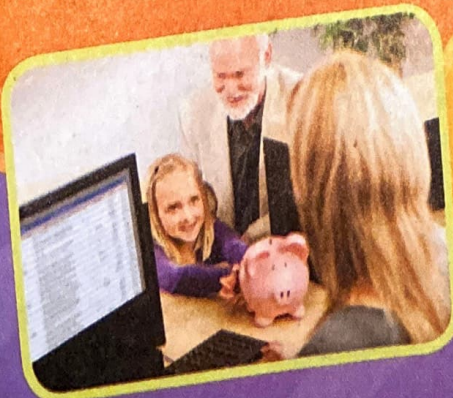

In our country, we call our paper money dollars. We call our coins pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters.

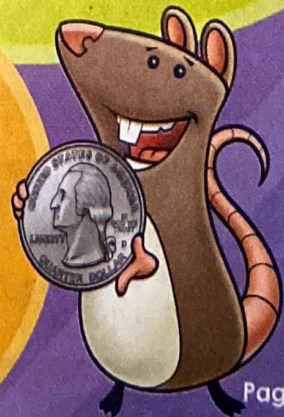

People who work at a bank are called bankers. They help people with money.

People who work earn money. Money helps us buy things we want. Money can buy goods or services.
