

End of the Year Spirit Week

*You may print out or draw the templates to complete the tasks.

Monday, May 4 – And the Award Goes To...

*Design a class award for yourself. Think of a strength you had this year and create your own award. Your award should include the award title, your name, grade level, teacher and principal's names, and should be colorful. You may either video tape or write a short speech explaining the award and why you think you earned it this year.

Tuesday, May 5 – Say Cheese!

*Today is class picture day and you are the photographer. Draw a class picture of you and your classmates. Don't forget the teacher! Upload your class picture into your Class Dojo portfolio.

Wednesday, May 6 – Memories

*Create a memory book for your third grade year. Take a picture of pages 2 and 3 and upload into your Class Dojo portfolio.
