

Think and Share

Talk About It Did the author write a funny story? Find and read one part of the story that made you laugh.

1. Use the pictures below to retell the story.

Retell

2. Would Sam make a good pet? Why do you think that?

Character

3. Look at page 18. Read the words. How did you know what nab means?

Fix Up

Look Back and Write Look back at page 17. Sam ran away. Write about why you think Sam ran.

Think and Share

Talk About It The author wrote about a silly pig. Find and read one part of the story that you think is silly.

1. Use the pictures below to retell the story.

Retell

2. Could this story really happen? Why do you think that? Realism/Fantasy

3. What are the most important things that happen in this story? Summarize

Look Back and Write Pig gets sick. Look back at pages 43–44. What makes Pig feel better? Make a list.

Think and Share

Talk About It How is Ox helpful? Find and read one part of the story that shows how helpful he is.

1. Use the pictures below to retell the story.

Retell

2. Where does this story take place? What other stories does it remind you of? Setting

3. What pictures did you see in your mind of Ox helping? Visualize

Look Back and Write Look back at the story. Write some things Ox can do to help.

Think and Share

Talk About It The author wrote A Fox and a Kit to tell us about foxes. Find and read one thing you learned about foxes.

1. Use the pictures below to summarize what you read. Retell
2. What is this selection mostly about?
Main Idea
3. What questions about foxes did you have as you read this selection? Ask Questions

Look Back and Write Look back at page 85. Write about how the fox picks up her kit.

Think and Share

Talk About It This story is about a boy and a girl like you. Find and read one part of the story that you think is exciting.

1. Use the pictures below to retell the story.

Retell

2. Could this story really happen? Why or why not? Realism/Fantasy

3. Does the story have a happy ending? Explain. Story Structure

Look Back and Write Look back at page 102. Write about what happened to the egg.

Think and Share

Talk About It Put yourself in the animal park. Read the part of the selection that tells about the animals you would like to see.

1. Use the pictures below to tell what you learned about wild animals. Retell
2. Why do hippos sit in the mud? Cause/Effect
3. Look back at page 122. How did the pictures help you understand the words?
Monitor/Fix Up

Look Back and Write Choose a photo from the selection. Write about the animal.

