

What is differentiated instruction?

How do teachers differentiate instruction?

How do teachers prepare their students and their classrooms for differentiated instruction?

What does differentiated instruction look like in the classroom?