🌵 ELA Day 67 Read Aloud

Today we read the book, The Light in the Night by Marie Volt.

This is a fiction story. A fiction is a made-up story that cannot happen in real-life. This is a story about Cosmo the Bear who is afraid of the dark.

Your thinking job as we read is: Who are the characters in the story?

Your Work: Spend 45-60 minutes working on this.

Using a piece of paper:

1. Write the book title
2. Write the book author
3. Write to answer: Who is one character in the story?
4. Draw a picture of the character

When you are finished, upload a picture or file of your work.
