The Role of a Volunteer

Volunteers in the classroom can assist teachers in a variety of ways, thereby freeing the teacher to focus more time on the teaching/learning process. An organized program of volunteer assistance can provide a unique contribution to the educational program by helping assume some of the many roles of the teacher.

Before You Begin

- Volunteers should arrange to meet with the teacher before beginning as a classroom volunteer. The first visit or two should be spent observing the classroom, getting to know the students and the style and routines of the teacher. This will help the children to become familiar with you before you begin.
- The teacher is in charge of all phases of classroom activity and the volunteers will take directions from the teacher. Your activities should support the efforts of staff members but not replace them or exceed their authority.
- It is not in the best interest of the child to have a parent, grandparent, guardian, etc. volunteer in their child's classroom; therefore, volunteers will be utilized in classrooms other than those in which their children are enrolled.
- Try to match your interest, abilities and time availability with the school needs. Contact the building principal for specific details regarding school need, requirements and scheduling options.
- Maintain good communication especially in the event of an absence or schedule change. If you cannot fulfill your commitment for any period of time, please contact the school or classroom teacher as soon as possible so other arrangements can be made.
- Follow school and system procedures regarding volunteers signing in and out, wearing badges, using school materials and maintaining health/security standards. Know emergency procedures for fire, illness, etc.
- Seek advice from those directly in charge, including teachers, secretaries, teaching assistants or other school personnel who are trained and responsible for the tasks. Maintain a spirit of partnership and cooperation with school staff.

All volunteers are to show their volunteer card to the Principal or School Staff

General Tips for the School Volunteer

Volunteering in a school is an experience and a privilege for both the student and the volunteer. It is designed to promote and maintain a supportive relationship for students, teachers and school staff.

REMEMBER:

BE HONEST	in our approach and attitude. It aids in developing trust.
BE PATIENT	when working with students. If they are having difficulty with a subject, they do not need additional pressure.
BE FLEXIBLE	in responding to the needs of students. Everyone has on/off days and this needs to be considered when working with students.
BE CONSISTENT	in dealings with students.
BE FRIENDLY	with a smile and a thank you, you can accomplish miracles.
BE RESPECTFUL	treat individuals in the same manner you wish to be treated.
BE DEPENDABLE	the student and teacher will look forward to your visit and will be disappointed if you are not there as scheduled.

Hints for Working with Students

- Be yourself. Warmth and friendliness foster positive volunteer-student relationships. Maintaining a sense of humor and comfort will help ensure your success with young people.
- Always be consistent with specific rules and practices maintained by your staff partner. Also, be familiar with school and classroom rules. Read parent or teacher handbook, if necessary.
- Maintain your position of responsibility and authority at all times. Do not let friendships or neighborly relations interfere with your role as school volunteer.
- Learn student and teacher names quickly.
- Be aware of and sensitive to the unique gifts and needs of individual students. This is critical at all age levels.
- Encourage and praise students when appropriate. Praise should be genuine.

Important Information

Confidentiality

All school volunteers are expected to maintain confidentiality of information while working in the school. All things that are seen and heard at school about children and their families should be considered privileged information. Trust must be established and maintained in order for the volunteer program to be successful. Volunteers can strengthen the bond between themselves and the school by following these guidelines:

- Treat all student information as personal and confidential regardless of source.
- Communicate relevant information about students to the respective classroom teacher or building principal.
- Seek clarification of unusual situations that occur in the school from the person(s) involved and avoid discussing such matters with non-school personnel.
- Retain a sense of perspective regarding comments heard and actions observed.
- Understand that not all information can and will be shared with volunteers, due to legal considerations.
- Deal impartially with students regardless of background, intellect, physical or emotional maturity.
- Do not discuss student progress or behavior with the parent. All relevant information should be referred to the teacher or principal. Direct inquiries about students to the professional staff.
- Speak constructively of all school staff; however, report difficulties involving the welfare of students or school to the principal.
- Do not discuss confidential information with anyone. This information includes, but is not limited to:
 - Scholastic and health records
 - Test scores and grades
 - Discipline and classroom behavior
 - Character traits of children
- All volunteers are to be at least 18 years of age and required to sign a statement of confidentiality.

Discipline

Discipline of students is solely the responsibility of the teacher in charge.

Volunteers should in no way discipline students. Should students misbehave in your presence, you should report this immediately to the teacher in charge. The teacher will then determine the necessary course of action.

Also note that we expect students to treat volunteers with the same level of respect given to other school personnel. If you feel that students are not being respectful towards you, do not hesitate to discuss the matter with the teacher or principal.

Discipline Suggestions

1. A teacher/aide/volunteer must be mature, self-controlled - an adult example of the conduct you are trying to teach.
2. Be yourself. There is no ideal personality for all adults who work with children to emulate; you have to be your own best self.
3. Act your age. Children need adults - not a playmate. Be friendly always; but, there is a basic difference between friendliness and familiarity. You can think as a pupil and understand pupils without becoming one of them.
4. Insist at all times on respect for grown-ups, for authority in general.
5. Be positive - give praise, encouragement – don't forget to say please and thank-you.
6. Be firm but kind. Children need kindness, but they also need a firm guiding hand.
7. Be consistent. Do not play favorites, but you should reward good behavior.
8. Be fair. Since the children in a class will be different, your treatment of each will be different.
9. Don't be thin-skinned. Don't take undisciplined, aggressive student behavior personally. Reject the behavior of the child, never the child himself.
10. Don't argue. You may discuss and explain, but you should never argue.
11. HAVE A GOOD SENSE OF HUMOR!!!!!!!!!!
