What is a Title I School?

Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) provides financial assistance to states and school districts. Title I Funding

- 1% of the total District's Title I funding is for Parent Involvement

How Does the School Spend Funds?

Title I Part A

- Title I funds are authorized and can be used to provide additional staff, professional development; instructional materials; improve curriculum; enhance parental involvement; extend learning time for students who need extra help; and provide other activities that are tied to raising student achievement on the state's academic achievement standards.

Requirements for a Title I Schoolwide Program

- A Title I school is eligible to become a Title I Schoolwide Program when the poverty level, (determined by free and reduced meal counts, Aid for Dependent Children [AFDC], census, or Medicaid) is at or above 40%.
- Serves all students in the school, but requires special focus for lowest achieving
- Combines federal funds into total school budget
- Is supplementary. The amount of Federal funds used in a schoolwide program must be supplemental to the amount of State and local funds the school would otherwise receive

School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Each school that receives Title I funds must jointly develop, agree on with, and distribute to parents of children receiving services a written parental involvement policy. The school parental involvement policy describes how the school will carry out the parental involvement requirements to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement.

School-Parent Compacts

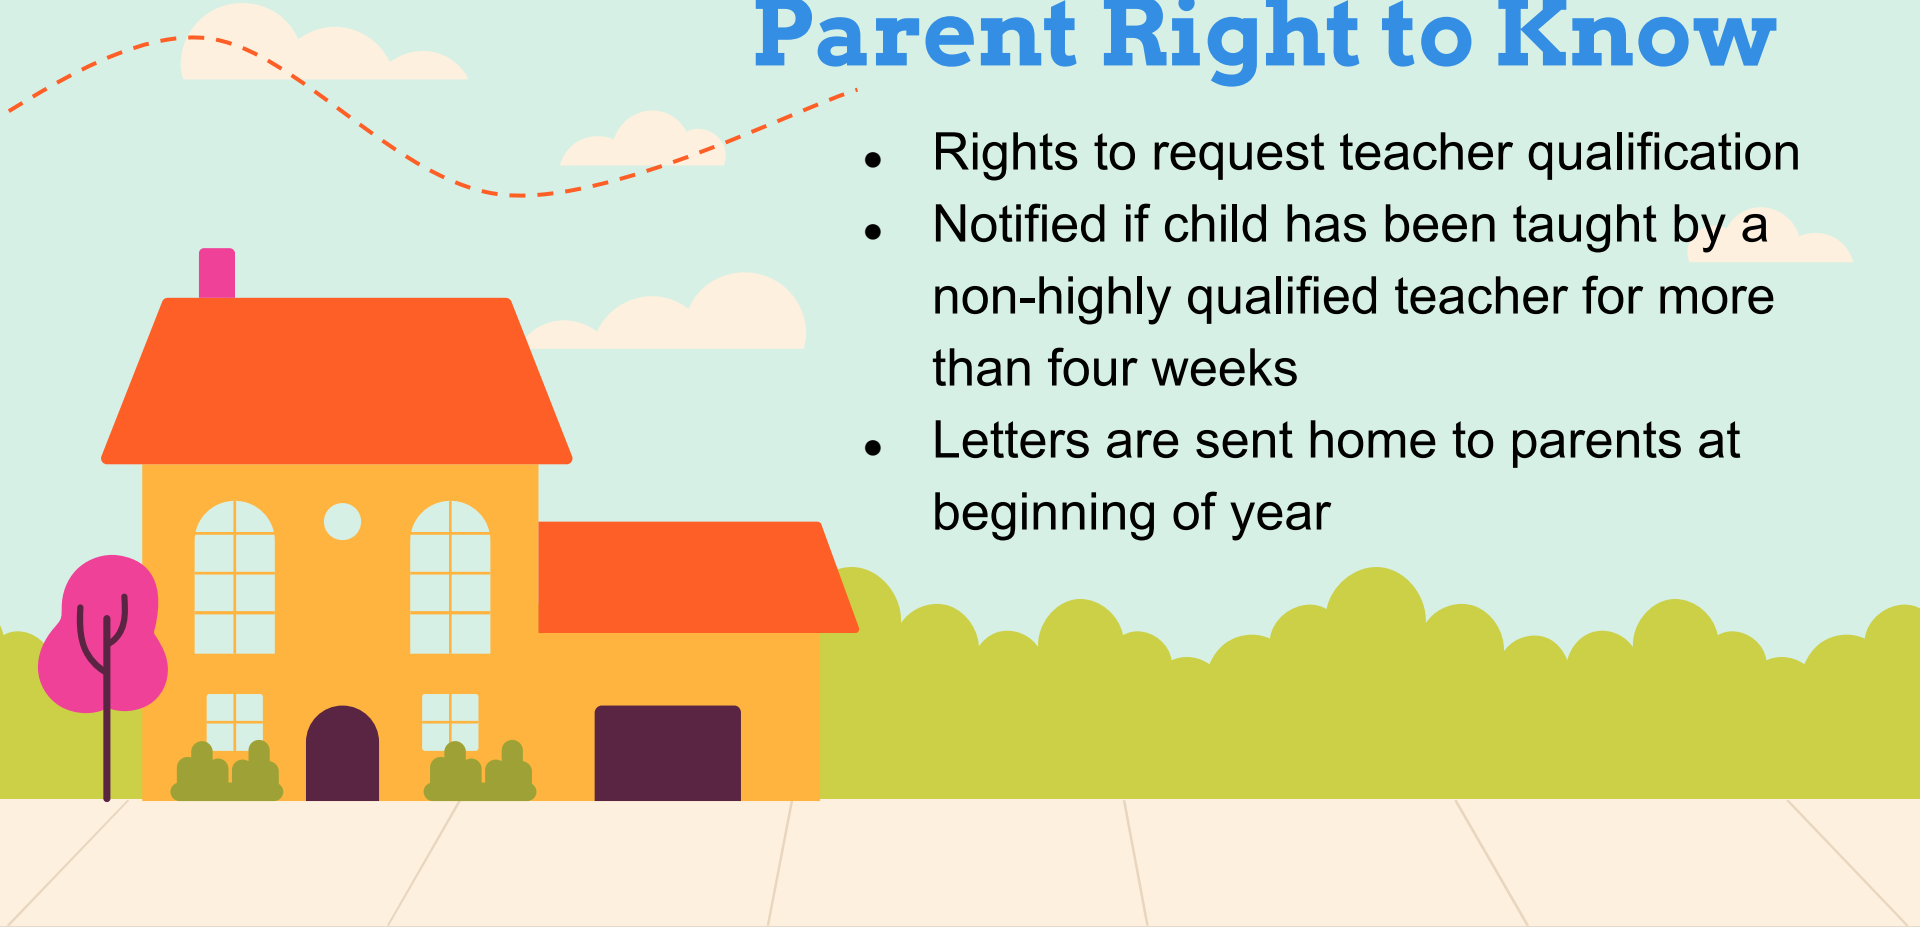

Each school that receives Title I funds must jointly develop and revise with parents a school-parent compact as part of the school-level parental involvement policy. The school-parent compact is an agreement that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high standards.
