Course Description:

Precalculus is a comprehensive course that weaves together previous study of algebra, geometry, and functions into a preparatory course for calculus. The course focuses on the mastery of critical skills and exposure to new skills necessary for success in subsequent math courses.

Course Standards:

You can use the following link for all the standards to be covered by this course.

<https://www.georgiastandards.org/Georgia-Standards/Frameworks/Pre-Calculus-Standards.pdf>

Instruction:

This course will be taught face-to-face. In the event of school closures due to COVID-19, the course will be shifted to the Canvas platform. Should this occur, the class will be taught synchronously during its regular time on Thursday. This class time will be reserved for office hours every other day of the week, so Monday through Wednesday and Friday.

Academic Integrity:

Academic dishonesty is the failure to maintain academic integrity. Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to: cheating, (using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise); fabrication, (falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise); bribery offered for grades, transcripts, or diplomas; obtaining or giving aid on an examination; having unauthorized prior knowledge of an examination; doing work for another student, presenting another student's work as one's own; and plagiarism.

Required Materials:

- Online only - A computer, preferably with a webcam.
- Graphing calculator (you can also use an online calculator. I suggest Desmos)
- Graph paper
- Notebook paper
- Pencils
- Protractor
- Ruler

Class Expectations:

- Attend class every day and be on time. Consistent attendance is vital to success!
- Attend all synchronous class instruction times! All work will be completed online via Canvas, and synchronous instruction will be done through Microsoft Teams (Online only)
- Be courteous and respect your teacher, students, yourself, and your school.
- Join the session promptly and with your mic muted to avoid interruption. (Online only)
- Stay on task and do your best work every day. All I ask is that you try!
- Make good use of the class office hours/ I am here to help!
- Follow all school rules as if you were in the building. Dress appropriately for the session.
- Most importantly: BE POSITIVE. The world may be uncertain, but learning doesn't need to be. Nothing lasts forever, and these frightening times are no different. I am honored to be your teacher, and I genuinely want to help. Please contact me if you need any assistance!

Make-up and Missing Assignments: If you cannot attend a session, please let me know beforehand if possible. It is up to the student to locate and complete any missed work. If you have any questions about what to do or where to find this work, you can contact me via Remind. Full credit will be given for make-up work. However, if late submissions become a regular habit, this may change. Coming to class and completing all work on time is vital to success!
