

PARENT AND STUDENT WEEKLY UPDATE
FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 15th

-9 WEEKS LEFT-

As we end the last nine weeks of the year, we have so much left of school. From prom, to senior week, the arts night, to so many more sports competitions, and much much more, we also have to keep infocus academics. I want to thank each of our teachers, faculty, and staff on finishing the year strong for our students. Students- Now is the time for you to continue working and finish strong. It has been a great year even with the pandemic and we look forward to our days left prior to graduation.

Schedule for this Week

Tuesday- Daily Schedule (1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Period Meet Synchronously Online)
Wednesday-Club/ Morning Assembly (TEACHERS AS ADVISORS- See Separate Email)
Thursday- Daily Schedule Friday- Asynchronous Friday (No students on campus)

Information you can use!

- All students who failed 3rd nine weeks will receive a grade recovery letter from each class they are failing by March 22nd. Students who receive these letters should work hard 4th nine weeks so that they can pass for the semester.
- On Tuesday, online students will login to 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th period for synchronous instruction since Monday was a holiday.
- On Wednesday, we will have a Teachers as Advisors so we will be on Club/ Morning Assembly schedule. Online students should login to homeroom.
- On Thursday, there is a BLOOD DRIVE IN THE OLD GYM!!!
- On Thursday, Jostens will be on campus during lunch for Sophomore ring make up day.
- Friday is Asynchronous Friday. Like the last Asynchronous Friday, please make sure to provide your students with tutoring, remediation, grade recovery, or acceleration opportunities.
- Students are reminded to follow the code of conduct in regards to dress code and cell phone violations with students.
- There will be college and military recruiters on campus this week during lunch. See the activities and events for this week to see which day.
- There are several athletic events this week! Come out and support the PATRIOTS!
