

PARENT AND STUDENT WEEKLY UPDATE FOR THE WEEK OF NOVEMBER 29th

What an historic football season! Our football team made the playoffs for the first time since 2014, had the first winning record since 2006, and broke so many other records including the first 1000-yard rusher since 2008. Congrats to the players and everyone who helped get the Patriots back on track. Even though the playoff game on Saturday was not the outcome we wanted, we are proud of our team and coaching staff for taking this season to the next level! Thank you to all the parents of these student athletes and the community of the #BESTSIDE! Thank you to our cheerleaders and #POWERHOUSE marching band!

Schedules for this Week

We will be on the Daily Schedule all week.

Information you can use!

- All work given to students during the quarantine period is due back to the teachers. Teachers will be realistic with due dates and grading understanding the variables at play.
- Final exams will be here before we know it. We will communicate the final exam schedule as soon as possible.
- Progress reports were issued last week through IC. There will be no hard copies issued. Students can check with their teachers for any questions they may have about their grades.
- Online Picture Day has been rescheduled for December 4th from 10-1 in the foyer of the new gym.
- For any student who failed first nine weeks and is working on grade recovery, you are reminded to complete this work as outlined by your teacher. This is an opportunity for you have a pathway to passing for the semester. Please take advantage of this.
