

SRES Media Center News - February

Black History Month

Media Center Events

Genre of the Month - Multicultural

This month the genre is Multicultural books. Stop by the Media Center and discover how another culture lives. Read about the customs, foods, holidays, and much more! Tune in to the Morning Show and listen for the description of a custom, food, holiday, or dress and turn your answer in to the Media Center before Noon each day!

Keyboard Typing Skills Online Lessons

Grades 3-5 will begin keyboarding skills lessons these next three months. Twice a week students will be in the technology lab learning proper typing posture, correct finger/hand placement on the keyboard, the Home Row, and how to locate the number and symbol keys. Students can even practice at home by clicking on the link under Featured Resources for February.

Black History Month in the Media Center

Come visit the Media Center to check out books about famous African-Americans who were writers, artists, astronauts, athletes, politicians, and more!

Featured Resources for February

Pines Library Catalog

ALA Great Websites for Kids

Common Sense Media Websites for Kids

Keyboarding Skills Online Lessons

Sites for Black History Month

The Library of Congress

PBS Learning Media

The Best of History Websites

Book Fair News

The Spring Book Fair starts next month! Be listening for more details about the dates and Family Night! We hope to have a special guest appearance!