1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE:

The Leroy Steed Scholarship Fund of the Augusta-Richmond County Neighborhood Associations Alliances, Inc. was founded in 1999 by the members of the Alliance. Members of the Alliance believed that Mr. Steed possessed distinguished traits that deserved emulation by future generations. Furthermore, Mr. Steed had the dream of involving the Alliance in the process of providing scholarships to high school students. The Alliance took the position that focuses its attention on scholarships, which is the best method to encourage high school students to continue their education and to commemorate Mr. Steed.

The scholarships are awarded for outstanding essays that demonstrate moral fiber which reflect an appreciation of the exemplary character and soldierly virtues of Mr. Steed. Essays are judged with emphasis on accuracy, research and the ability to express one's thought in writing.

2. THE ESSAY:

The length of the essay is very important; however, the quality of the essay is more important. One must demonstrate a good understanding of the writing process and skills. The topic, ideas, and points should be well developed. We seek clear, well-expressed, original essays.

3. RECOMMENDATIONS:

Three (3) recommendations are required. Two (2) must be High School teacher recommendations and one (1) community recommendation.

4. ELIGIBILITY:

Applicants classified as seniors in the Richmond County Public School System may apply. Applicants should not have received a Leroy Steed Scholarship in the past, must be residents of Augusta-Richmond County, and have attended a Richmond County high school during both junior and senior years. They must also plan to attend an accredited college or university, junior college, or technical school in the United States.
