

Beginning

the problem of slavery - economic impact vs. morality

the positive good theory - how southern leaders justified slavery

the abolitionist movement

slave rebellions

Civil War Origins

nullification crisis - 1820s/30s -

Jacksonian period

sectional differences - see sep. chart

Secession

Election of 1860/secession of SC
CSA formed/Jefferson Davis - Pres.

Battle of Ft. Sumter - SC

Lincoln suspends writs of habeas corpus along border states

VA added when Lincoln calls for the raising of troops - total CSA 11

Constitutional issue - legality of secession - states rights vs. federal authority

Leaders and Battles

Grant - Vicksburg 1863 - secures Miss Rv and the west

Lee - Antietam 1862, Gettysburg 1863
- both failed invasions of Union territory

Sherman - Atlanta - March to the Sea - December 1864

Union/Confederacy strengths and weaknesses - know them!

Civil War 1861-1865

Lincoln

Republican platform

preserve the Union

suspends writs of habeas corpus when war starts - why?

Emancipation Proclamation after Antietam - impact of, black troops

Gettysburg Address

2nd Inaugural Address

diplomacy w/ Britain and France - examples?

End of War April 1865

war of attrition

Richmond - Lee vs. Grant for the last year of the war surrender at Appomattox

Courthouse, VA - generous terms

Lincoln assassinated - April -

John Wilkes Booth

Andrew Johnson becomes

POTUS

Conclusions

13th amendment ends slavery - April

Reconstruction begins status of southern sts?

status of former slaves?

federal authority over the states established see next chart!

