

Happy Daze – Answer on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What war did President Eisenhower help end?
2. How was the 1950s a consumer society?
3. How was the 1950s an age of conformity?
4. What does the phrase “keeping up with the Jones’” mean?
5. What was the impact of TV on life in the United States? Give examples.
6. How did Hugh Hefner challenge American society?
7. What was “race” music?
8. What entertainer revolutionized rock and roll?
9. What TV show catered to the youth culture of the 1950s?
10. Who were beatniks?
11. How was Jim Crow still alive and well in the 1950s?
12. How long did the Montgomery Bus Boycott last?
13. Where was the Brown vs. BOE case challenged?
14. Who were the Little Rock Nine?
15. How did President Eisenhower respond to the Central HS crisis in Little Rock, Ark.?
16. What impact did automobile expansion have on American society? Give examples of new businesses which centered around the expansion of the auto industry.
17. When was the Interstate Highway system expanded?
18. Into what Eastern European country did the Russians send troops to stop a rebellion?
19. What was being tested in the Arizona desert?

Happy Daze – Answer on a separate sheet of paper.

1. What war did President Eisenhower help end?
2. How was the 1950s a consumer society?
3. How was the 1950s an age of conformity?
4. What does the phrase “keeping up with the Jones’” mean?
5. What was the impact of TV on life in the United States? Give examples.
6. How did Hugh Hefner challenge American society?
7. What was “race” music?
8. What entertainer revolutionized rock and roll?
9. What TV show catered to the youth culture of the 1950s?
10. Who were beatniks?
11. How was Jim Crow still alive and well in the 1950s?
12. How long did the Montgomery Bus Boycott last?
13. Where was the Brown vs. BOE case challenged?
14. Who were the Little Rock Nine?
15. How did President Eisenhower respond to the Central HS crisis in Little Rock, Ark.?
16. What impact did automobile expansion have on American society? Give examples of new businesses which centered around the expansion of the auto industry.
17. When was the Interstate Highway system expanded?
18. Into what Eastern European country did the Russians send troops to stop a rebellion?
19. What was being tested in the Arizona desert?