Genealogy 101: The Basics of Family History Research

Wednesday, January 23, 2019

10:30 am

Room B, First Floor

Another year is before us, which gives those interested the opportunity to learn more about their family history. If you have always wanted to start your genealogy quest, but do not know how to begin, this class is for you. We will go over the basic rules of family history research and briefly discuss various library resources you can access and how. Some of these resources are Web-based so basic computer skills are required. All of our six libraries offer basic and intermediate computer classes if you need to build your skills.

We will also practice filling out a Pedigree Chart and Family Group worksheet, the building blocks of family research. Please call 706-826-1511 for details.

Our Best Kept Secret: Discovering Historic and Current News in the Augusta Chronicle Digital Newspapers Database

Tuesday, February 19, 2019

10 am

Third Floor Computer Lab

Did you know a Richmond County PINES library card gives you access to the most current digital editions of the Augusta Chronicle? Not only that, being the "South's Oldest Newspaper" you also have access to the digital editions going back as far as 1792! This resource is important for anyone interested in local history and genealogy, and the best part is that with a library card and an internet connection you can do it from the comfort of your own home. If you want to learn more about this impressive database, and how to access not only local newspapers, but national ones as well, please join us. Space is limited so registration is required. Please call 706-826-1511 to reserve your spot!

The Georgia Heritage Room is located on the third floor of the Headquarters Library at 823 Telfair Street. Our hours of operation are Monday-Friday 9 am to 5 pm and Saturday 1 pm to 5 pm. We are closed Sundays.
