One of the most critical functions of a school system is to deliver instructional materials into the hands of the teachers and students in an adequate amount of time. Destiny Textbook Manager gives RCSS a powerful tool for managing textbooks.

In order to describe the procedures, the textbook system should be broken into four distinct functional areas – procurement (includes Georgia Department of Education’s textbook rules), distribution, check-out and responsibilities. The four areas are necessarily related and reliant upon one another.

PROCUREMENT including Georgia DOE Textbook Rules

The Georgia Department of Education defines a textbook as "systematically designed instructional material in any medium, print or non-print, that constitutes the principal source of study for or directly enhances the instruction of a state-funded course" and to prescribe the textbooks to be used in the various grades in the public schools of this state, including the elementary grades and high school grades. The state board may provide, by regulation, for multiple listings of books for use in the various grades and may, in its discretion, authorize the county school superintendents or the superintendents of independent school systems to exercise a choice between books so listed or adopted for any particular grade." (20-2-1010)

The recommendation process is based upon a six-year cycle, which repeats itself in the seventh year. Each year of the cycle, the state reviews learning resources and learning resources that relate to a particular subject or group of subjects in order to create a state-recommended list of materials. Publishers of record are invited to submit their materials for consideration and present their materials to an advisory committee. Evaluation sites, one in each of the congressional districts, are opened in the summer, so that educators and the general public may also view and evaluate the materials. Based on the recommendations from the advisory committee, the State Board of Education votes to approve the list of materials.

Note: RCSS is not required to adopt during this cycle per rule 160-4-4.10

RCSS Adoption Procedures
The following procedure will be followed in Richmond County:

1. The preliminary textbook review committee members will be selected from the areas as listed: The Board President will appoint one member of the Board of Education. The Board of Education Advisory Council will appoint one of its members. The PTA Council will appoint five parents-at-large. The Superintendent will appoint three principals and three assistants--one per each level—elementary school, middle school, high school. Principals will work with the subject coordinator to appoint six elementary teachers, six middle school teachers, and secondary department heads or designees. All foreign language teachers and all fine arts teachers will serve on the review committee for their respective subject areas. The vocational supervisors will comprise the review committee for vocational textbooks. Ex-officio members, without voting privileges, will be the Board of Education President, Superintendent, Executive Director, and the Director of Curriculum. The subject area coordinator will facilitate the committee. The major responsibility of the committee is to review and select three titles from the Georgia Department of Education Textbook List and other learning resources based upon the needs of the students.

State Recommended Adoption Procedures:

For further information about Georgia DOE Textbook rules, visit http://www.doe.k12.ga.us/Curriculum-Instruction-and-Assessment/Curriculum-and-Instruction/Pages/Learning-Resources.aspx
DISTRIBUTION

Textbooks should be barcoded at the Publisher. This would incur a cost of .50 to $1.00 per book (depending on the publisher). Textbooks would be sorted and shipped in boxes by barcode ranges. Textbooks would be shipped to one centralized location. Textbooks would be prepared for distribution to the schools at the selected distribution center. Any questions regarding textbooks should be directed to the Instructional Inventory Manager at 706-826-1000 ext. 5291.

- Textbooks must be cataloged correctly into the Destiny Textbook Manager system.
- Barcoded copies must be added to each record with a range assigned to each school.
- Textbooks will arrive at each school with barcodes. “Richmond County Schools” is printed on the barcode instead of the specific school name. Barcodes will be on the back of the book and inside of the cover.
- Consumable items such as workbooks and paperback novels will not be barcoded. They will be counted and added to the system.
- Textbooks will arrive “In Transit” in the Destiny Textbook Management System from the distribution center to each school.

CHECK-OUT

After textbooks arrive at each school, they must be processed before checking them out to teachers or students.

- Textbooks must be received from the “In Transit” status in Destiny.
- The AP or Administrative Intern should scan each book into the system – if there is any discrepancy in the number sent from the distribution center and the number received, the Media Specialist should notify the Instructional Inventory Manager immediately.
- After checking books in, the check-out process can begin.
- If a book arrives damaged or without a barcode, please contact the Instructional Materials Manager.
- School check-out procedures can be determined by the school (there are two methods outlined below), but the procedure has to result in the books being assigned to individual students. An AP or Administrative Intern cannot check-out books to a teacher or give books to students without the books being checked-out in the Destiny system.
- During the first days of school (while the check-out process is going on), each school should make sure that there is extra help in the Media Center.
- Students are responsible for checking for damages to issued books. Students will fill out the Instructional Materials Damage form. Students will turn in the form to their teacher or the Media Specialist. The form will be kept on file until the end of the year. Students failing to turn in the Damage form will agree that all books issued were in good condition.
Method 1 (works best for Elementary schools – can be used in Middle schools)

1. After processing books, use library tables to stack each textbook type by grade level (i.e. have a table for Math books, a table for ELA books, etc.).
2. Have a custodian or other staff member help deliver any books from bookrooms in the school.
3. Set up a schedule (by hall, teacher, or whatever works for your school) for each class to come to the Media Center.
4. Instruct the teacher of the process before bringing his/her class to the Media Center that each student should pick up a book from each table.
5. Have the students bring the books to the check-out desk.
6. Find the student’s name in Destiny and check-out the stack of books to each student.

Method 2 (works best for High Schools – can be used with Middle Schools)

1. Train teachers how to use Destiny during Pre-Planning (call Media and Instructional Technology for assistance in training if necessary).
2. Process any new books before they are distributed.
3. Check books out to teachers.
4. Teachers should check books out to individual students.
5. Any teacher not using Destiny for check-out must ask for assistance from the Media Specialist.
6. If a student leaves one class for another, the teacher must take up the book and check it in and the new teacher must check a book out to the student.
7. If a teacher does not have enough books for students, he/she should notify the AP or Administrative Intern.
8. The AP or Administrative Intern should look in Destiny to find the book in the school in another teacher’s class. If the book is located, the AP or Administrative Intern should transfer it from one teacher to the other.

FILL-IN ORDERS

1. If there is a shortage of books in a school, the Media Specialist should inform the Assistant Principal or Principal.
2. The Assistant Principal or Administrative Intern should request more books using the Destiny Textbook ordering system.
3. All fill-in orders are required to be placed into the Destiny Textbook ordering system.
4. The Instructional Inventory Manager will check Destiny to make sure that books are not available somewhere within the county before placing an order.
5. If the books are available at another school, books will be transferred by Instructional Inventory Manager.
6. All orders must be approved by the Instructional Inventory Manager.
TRANSFERS

Instructional materials (including student texts and workbooks, Teacher's Editions, and kits) will be transferred directly between schools, using existing equipment and personnel from the Textbook distribution center.

1. Using Destiny, the RCSS Instructional Inventory Manager will determine whether the needed books are available within the system.
2. The RCSS Instructional Inventory Manager will notify the AP or Administrative Intern at the school(s) where the needed books have been found (Note: If the information in Destiny is inaccurate, the AP or Administrative Intern must notify the Instructional Inventory Manager immediately and provide information on what books are actually available at the school).
3. The AP or Administrative Intern will pull and box the required books, and place them “in transit” to the receiving school in Destiny (See Transferring Textbooks in Appendix).
4. The RCSS Instructional Inventory Manager will provide a list of the books to be collected and their location to staff, who will then collect the needed materials and deliver them directly to the receiving school’s AP or Administrative Intern.
5. The AP or Administrative Intern at the receiving school will verify the books received and accept them into the school’s catalog in Destiny.

TEXTBOOK FINES

From Richmond County Board of Education Policy JBCBA (see appendix):
At the end of each semester or beginning of each semester or school year, or each grading period, the Principal should make diligent efforts to collect for such items and give the parents an opportunity at that time to make satisfactory arrangements to pay for such lost or damaged items. The Principal should inform the parents that the child will not be denied admission to school, but that payment is a legal obligation and shall be required as allowed.

When a child is transferring school systems or any permanent records of the child are requested by another entity, those records should not be sent until the fees have been collected.

While a child shall not be denied the right to graduate, or to march if the graduation is a requirement, the actual diploma may be held in the possession of the school system until obligations are paid.

Other legal means such as suit will be pursued as will disciplinary action in appropriate cases.

School Level
Assistant Principal, teachers and media specialist are encouraged to use good judgment when assessing fines for lost and damaged textbooks. Take into account the binding of the book, condition of the book and the nature of the loss or damage.
Note: Occasionally, there are problems with new textbooks, such as binding breaks that do not hold up under normal use. If books in use in your school seem to have publisher defects, please report such to the RCS Instructional Materials Manager as soon as problems are discovered. If it is determined that a publisher defect has caused the damage, the books should be replaced by the publisher. Students should not be charged a fine for these books.

Dear Parent/Guardian:

(SAMPLE)

Your student has received copies of the textbooks being used in their classes. Those books are to be covered with book covers. Textbooks are issued according to the barcode number. Therefore, students must return the same books that were issued to them. Remind students not to leave their textbooks in classrooms. If another student uses their book and it becomes damaged or lost, your student is still responsible. Students have two weeks to inspect their textbooks and report damages on attached form. Damage not reported and noted may be charged at the end of the year. When textbooks are returned at the end of the school year fines may be charged for writing, water damage, torn or missing pages, and damaged or missing barcodes. Parent and/or student are responsible for all lost items.

Student Name: _______________ Student Signature: _______________

Parent Name: _______________ Parent Signature: _______________

The Richmond County School System recognizes that the rising cost of instructional materials must be addressed in order to maintain our goal of academic excellence for our students. The Richmond County School System provides textbooks and other instructional materials at no cost to the students and their parents/guardians. Students are responsible for the proper use and care of those instructional materials issued to them. The parent, guardian, or other person having custody of the student to whom the instructional materials are issued shall be liable for any loss, abuse, or damage in excess of that which would result from normal use of the materials. Therefore, students will be charged the replacement cost if a book is lost or is rendered unusable.

A note must be made in Destiny to explain any damage to a textbook and the fine charged.
DISCARDED MATERIALS

1. The AP or Administrative Intern should fill out discarded textbook form.
2. Barcodes and Titles of Textbooks and Instructional Materials should be removed from the inventory in Destiny.
3. The AP or Administrative Intern should request a Gaylord for discarded books from the Instructional Inventory Manager.
4. All textbooks and instructional materials must be placed into the Gaylord provided to the school.
5. The AP or Administrative Intern will contact the Instructional Inventory Manager once the Gaylord is full for removal.
6. The Instructional Inventory Manager will contact a vendor for removal of the Gaylord from the school.

MAINTAINING DISTRICT INVENTORY

1. Instructional Inventory Manager enters the inventory program into Destiny Textbook Manager for all schools to maintain inventory for new school term.

2. Instructional Inventory Manager checks schools on weekly basis for items accounted, unaccounted and listed as lost.

3. Reminder is sent to all schools before Spring break on date a completed inventory is due for the end of year.

4. Upon completion date, inventory is checked at all schools for finalizing of accounted, unaccounted and lost items by verifying percentage rate by Instructional Inventory Manager.

5. Schools that are in complete and percentage rates are unacceptable are then notified.

6. Upon all schools completion, Instructional Inventory Manager finalizes the District Inventory in the Destiny Textbook Manager System.

- Catalog – search for textbooks
- Circulation – show textbooks checked out
- Reports – run reports for your school
- Back Office – Report manager, patrons
- My Info – info about the user logged in Determining Your Textbook Needs – Searching the System

First, you want to search for a particular book to see if you have it in your school and how many copies you own. Click on the Catalog tab and Textbook Search.

Notice that the default search is by Title. There is a dropdown arrow next to the word “Title” – click on that arrow for other ways to search. You can search by
- Barcode
- ISBN
- Budget (Funding Source)
- Subject
- Author

So, let’s say that I am looking for a 4th grade Houghton-Mifflin Social Studies book – I would pull down the menu to ISBN and type the ISBN in the box and then click on Go!

Hint: You can find the ISBN on the book itself or on the Textbook Order Forms (online under Educators) – it is 9 or 13 digits.

This will pull up the 4th grade Houghton-Mifflin Social Studies book.

Ordering Textbooks

Once you know how many books that you have in your school, you can determine if you need to place an order for more. If Destiny is showing that you have more than you think you have, you may want to check with your teachers.... Often times, books are hidden in cabinets... 😊 If you cannot find the books or need assistance, contact the Instructional Materials Manager.

Go to the menu on the left and click on Order Textbooks

Once you click on Order Textbooks, you will see a page with any orders you have previously made. You can customize your view to see any orders in the system for your school.
Click on the New Order button on the right to place a textbook order.

On the new order form, type in your name, your phone number, your email address, if you need books shipped after a certain date, and any notes that you need to share. Below that, select the book or books that you need to order.

Under the Select Titles to Order section, pull down the search area menu from All to ISBN number. Enter the ISBN number and click on Go to select the book to order.

The system will pull up the book with that ISBN number. Notice that the actual textbook shows the cost of the book as well as the number of students enrolled in the class that need that book.

Enter the quantity requested and then click on select.

This will start a list of books that you are ordering. You can then search for additional books and go through the same steps to add everything that you need to one list.
Textbook Ordering Instructions

If you need to remove any items from your list, click on the red “x” to the right of the item and it will delete it.

Once you have ordered the textbooks that you need, click on Save and Send.

- [Save & Send]
- [Save]
- [Cancel]

After saving and sending, the system will show you the details of your order.

The icons to the right will allow you to view notes, view the order in detail or to remove it from your list.

If you remove it from your list, it will delete the order. Please do not remove it from your list unless you wish to delete it completely.

Are you sure you want to delete this order?

- [Yes]
- [No]

After you have placed your order, you can check on the status by logging into Destiny.

If you see a Denied message after placing your order, please check the Notes. “Denied” is the system term that is used and does not mean that you will not receive your books. This just means that your books may not be ordered from the company—they may be transferred to you from another school. The note should let you know the status of your receiving the books.

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Your student has received textbooks being used in their classes. Textbooks should be covered with book covers to help decrease damage to the books. Textbooks are checked out to your student in Destiny Textbook Manager according to barcode numbers. Therefore, students must return the same books that were issued to them. Remind students not to leave their textbooks in classrooms. If another student uses your student’s book and it becomes damaged or lost, your student is still responsible. Students have one week to inspect their textbooks and report damages on the attached forms. Damages not reported and noted on the form will be charged at the end of the year. Some examples are writing, water damage, torn or missing pages, and damaged or missing barcodes. Parents and/or students are responsible for all lost items.

STUDENT FEES, FINES AND CHARGES

The Richmond County School System will provide basic instructional materials required to complete each course of study funded for credit under QBE or approved by the Richmond County Board of Education.

Schools may require students to supply materials basic to all courses, such as paper, pencils, crayons and pens; but no specific types or brands of materials may be required. Any required materials above and beyond these shall be provided by the school district. A student may choose to purchase supplies/materials and keep the finished product. Examples include computer disks used for developing programs, etc., and shop projects.

Students enrolled in Physical Education and enrolled in Davidson Fine Arts Magnet and Johnson Health Science and Engineering Magnet specialized courses will be required to provide clothing appropriate for each course. A definition of such clothing may be generic but not specific to color or brand. Special safety equipment or clothing for any course shall be provided by the school.

The Richmond County Board of Education adopted a basic list of instruments and/or equipment to provide instruments and equipment equitably to all students enrolled in the instrumental music program. However, students may rent or purchase their own instruments.

The following are legitimate charges:

1. Gate admission.
2. Student publications.
3. Graduation fees (if participation is not required).
4. Replacement/repair costs for loss or abuse of school system property.
5. Activity fees.

However, none of the above charges can be made a condition of attendance or credit within the normal day academic program. Students will be charged a reasonable fee for lost, damaged or abused school system property. All legal means will be made by the principal to collect same.

The Principal, or his designee, will notify the parents or guardian of the amount owed for lost or damaged text books, library books, system or State owned materials or equipment.
At the end of each semester or beginning of each semester or school year, or each grading period, the Principal should make diligent efforts to collect for such items and give the parents an opportunity at that time to make satisfactory arrangements to pay for such lost or damaged items. The Principal should inform the parents that the child will not be denied admission to school, but that payment is a legal obligation and shall be required as allowed.

When a child is transferring school systems or any permanent records of the child are requested by another entity, those records should not be sent until the fees have been collected.

While a child shall not be denied the right to graduate, or to march if the graduation is a requirement, the actual diploma may be held in the possession of the school system until obligations are paid.

Other legal means such as suit will be pursued as will disciplinary action in appropriate cases.

STUDENT FEES, FINES AND CHARGES

Lost or Damaged Textbooks, Library Books, System or State-Owned Materials or Equipment

Teachers and/or principal will determine the amount to be charged for lost or damaged textbooks, system- or state-owned materials or equipment; librarians will determine the amount to be charged for lost or damaged library books. A minimum of 50 cents is to be charged for damages. Report cards will not be sent home unless all charges are paid; however, principals are under no circumstances to send a student home from school during the school day because the parents have not paid for the lost or damaged books, materials or equipment. If a student owes money for lost or damaged books, materials or equipment, the parents are to be notified by letter or phone that the student’s report card is in the principal’s office and the parents are to come in to review the report card and make arrangements to pay the financial obligation of the student.

1. New Book - Full Charge
2. Used - Good Condition - 3/4 cost
3. Used - Fair Condition - 1/2 cost
4. Used - Poor Condition - 1/4 cost

Collection of textbook money should be recorded on a form similar to JS-E (Policy Reference Manual), and all money and the summarized form should be turned in at one time to the school secretary.

Rental of Student Locks on Lockers and Sale of Parking Stickers

A county-wide policy on rental of student locks, locks on lockers, and sale of parking stickers has been established. The only justification for the rental locks on lockers and sale of parking stickers is to reasonably cover the cost to the school for the same. The maximum charge shall be as follows:

- Padlocks - $5.00
- Combination locks - $3.00
- Parking Stickers - $4.00

The information above pertains to the rental of locks on lockers; this means a principal may sell a combination lock for $3.00, a padlock for $5.00 and refund $2.00 upon return of the lock at the end of the school year. Where combination locks were installed within the locker door, a maximum of $1.50 rental may be charged.

The above policy will apply to locks within the physical education department as well as the school.
