The Induction certificate is part of Georgia's tiered educator certification system and provides a statewide structure for the professional development and effectiveness of early career educators and educators new to the state of Georgia. Induction Pathway 4 certificates are issued at the request of a Georgia LUA based on minimum degree requirements. Issuance of an Induction Pathway 4 certificate does not require completion of an educator preparation program. Content assessment is required for issuance of an Induction Pathway 4 certificate in most fields.

To convert these certificate fields to renewable professional, you must satisfy the following requirements: Be employed by a Georgia LUA; Complete an approved certification program; Complete an approved exceptional child course; Have 3 years of experience within 5 years; Pass content pedagogy assessment; Pass GACE Ethics Program Exit Assessment.

This is a non-professional certificate. In order to qualify for professional certification, you must satisfy the requirements listed on the certificate and outlined in correspondence. The GAPSC will not revise non-professional certificates until all conversion requirements are completed.
