

What is a iTTR?

An educator/coach who provides teachers with innovative methods to improve instruction.

What do iTTRs do?

Empower educators, providing 21st century learning strategies using technology as the foundation to help learners becoming digitally and informationally literate in an ever changing world.

Why do we need iTTRs?

iTTRs are about preparing students with the skills they need to succeed in the 21st century world.

What is the most important thing a iTTR does?

iTTRs provide Instructional Technology support to staff at the building level.

How can I become a iTTR?

iTTRs are appointed by their principal. If you are interested becoming a iTTR for your school, contact your principal.