

2016-2017 Yearbook Disclaimer

Welcome to the yearbook staff. My editor and I are very happy to have you on board to produce DFA's best yearbook ever. Please see a few disclaimers below and initial and sign where requested to acknowledge certain expectations for this course.

1. Although this class is comprised mostly of senior students, the yearbook is more than a record of senior activity. I will do my very best to cover the many different areas and grade levels at my school.

Initials _____

2. I will be required to sell a minimum of a ½ page of business ads. This can be a combination of ⅛ page ads, ¼ page ads, one ½ page, or 1 full page ad. This must be completed during the first nine weeks of school and will count as 3 test grades.

Initials _____

3. I will be required to attend a minimum number of after school events and activities during each nine week period. Like many of our fine art courses, attendance and participation in these events as yearbook staff members is required. Not meeting this requirement will greatly impact my grade.

Initials _____

4. After-school jobs and other fine arts and sports commitments do not automatically excuse me from #3's responsibilities. I have requested this course and agree to responsibly balance my schedule.

Initials _____

5. I understand that there is a structure and order to the yearbook staff. I agree to work as a team member and follow respectful requests made by my yearbook editor and section editors.

Initials _____

6. I understand that the production, photography, and layout of the yearbook is not sole responsibility of Mr. Wiggins. I agree to serve in my best capacity(photography, advertising, marketing, sales, writing, design) to produce the best product possible.

Initials _____

7. I understand that Mr. Wiggins is the yearbook advisor and that the final decision impacting the class, yearbook, sections, or pages is his responsibility.
