

abduction	kidnapping
destruction	the act of taking down or destroying something that was built digression	wandering away from the subject expression	the process of making known one's thoughts or feelings extinction	the disappearance of a species when the last of its members dies impression	an idea, feeling, or opinion about something or someone oppression	cruel or unjust treatment profession	a job that requires special training recession	A period of declining economic growth traction	the act of drawing or pulling